

TREATY BETWEEN THE LAO PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC AND THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND
ON THE TRANSFER OF SENTENCED PERSONS

Taking into consideration the laws and regulations of the Contracting Parties in force regarding enforcement of penal sentences;

Desiring to co-operate in the enforcement of penal sentences;

Considering that this co-operation should serve the interest of the administration of justice;

ARTICLE 4

CONDITIONS FOR TRANSFER

Sentenced persons may be transferred under this Treaty only on the following conditions:

- (a) the acts or omissions for which the sentence has been imposed would constitute a criminal offence under the laws of the receiving Party; this condition shall not be interpreted to require that the offence described in the laws of both Contracting Parties be identical with respect to matters that do not affect the essential nature of the offence;

- (b) the sentenced person is a national of the receiving Party;
- (c) the transferring and receiving Parties agree to the transfer;
- (d) the transfer is consented to by the sentenced person or, where in view of the person's age or physical or mental condition one of the Contracting Parties considers it necessary, by his or her legal representative;
- (e) at the time the request for transfer is received, the sentenced person has still at least one year of the sentence to serve; in exceptional cases, the Contracting Parties may agree to a transfer even if the sentenced person has less than one year of the sentence to serve;
- (f) the judgment is final and no other legal proceedings relating to the offence or any other offence committed by the sentenced person are pending in the transferring Party;
- (g) the transfer of the sentenced person does not prejudice the Contracting Parties' internal or external security, public order or other essential interests;
- (h) the sentenced person was not sentenced in respect of one of the following offences under Lao law:
 - (i) an offence against the President of the Lao People's Democratic Republic and his spouse;
 - (ii) an offence against the internal security of the State, including criminal offences against the President of the National Assembly and his spouse or the Prime Minister and his spouse, or external security of the State; or
 - (iii) an offence under legislation protecting national art treasures; and
- (i) unless the Contracting Parties otherwise agree, a sentenced person may not be transferred unless he has made full payment of the fine, restitution of property, or compensation for damages according to the judgment of the court in the transferring Party in the criminal case.

ARTICLE 5

PROCEDURES FOR TRANSFER

1. Any sentenced person to whom this Treaty may apply shall be informed by the transferring Party of the substance of this Treaty.

2. Every transfer under this Treaty shall be commenced through diplomatic channels by a written request from either Contracting Party.

3. If a sentenced person expresses an interest to the transferring Party to be transferred, and the transferring Party is prepared, in principle, to approve the request for transfer, the transferring Party shall promptly inform the receiving Party in writing, and provide the following information:

- (a) the name, date and place of birth of the sentenced person;
- (b) the location of the sentenced person and, if available, permanent address in the receiving Party;
- (c) a statement of the facts upon which the conviction and sentence were based;
- (d) the nature, duration and date of commencement of the sentence, the termination date of the sentence, if applicable, and the length of time already served by the sentenced person and any remission to which he or she is entitled on account of work done, good behaviour, pre-trial confinement or other reasons;
- (e) a copy of the judgment and information about the law on which it is based; and
- (f) if available, any other additional information, including medical or social reports on the sentenced person, which may be of significance for the sentenced person's transfer and for the continued enforcement of his sentence.

4. If a sentenced person expresses an interest to the receiving Party to be transferred, the receiving Party shall so inform the transferring Party. If the transferring Party is prepared, in principle, to approve the request for transfer, the transferring Party shall promptly inform the receiving Party in writing, and provide the information referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article.

5. If the receiving Party, having considered the information which the transferring Party has provided, is willing to proceed with the transfer, it shall promptly inform the transferring Party in writing, and provide the following information:

- (a) a statement indicating that the sentenced person is a national of the receiving Party for the purposes of this Treaty;
- (b) a copy of the relevant law of the receiving Party which provides that the acts or omissions on account of which the sentence has been imposed in the transferring Party constitute a criminal offence according to the law of the receiving Party, or would constitute a criminal offence if committed on its territory;
- (c) a statement of the effect, in relation to the sentenced person, of any law or regulation relating to that person's detention in the receiving Party after that person's transfer, including a statement, if applicable, of the effect of paragraph 4 of Article 8 of this Treaty upon that person's transfer; and

- (d) a statement of any outstanding charges, convictions or criminal investigations in respect of the sentenced person.

6. If the transferring Party is willing to proceed with the transfer, it shall inform the receiving Party of its decision through diplomatic channels without delay. It shall also promptly provide the receiving Party with the following:

- (a) a declaration containing the sentenced person's consent to the transfer; and
- (b) written confirmation of the transferring Party's agreement to the transfer.

7. Where the Contracting Parties have agreed to the transfer, they shall make arrangements for the transfer of the sentenced person. Delivery of the sentenced person by the authorities of the transferring Party to those of the receiving Party shall occur on a date and at a place within the territory of the transferring Party agreed upon by both Contracting Parties.

8. If either Contracting Party decides not to agree to the transfer, it shall promptly inform the other Contracting Party of its decision in writing.

9. The transferring Party shall inform the sentenced person in writing of any action taken by the transferring Party or the receiving Party under the preceding paragraphs of this Article.

ARTICLE 6

VERIFICATION OF CONSENT

1. The transferring Party shall ensure that a sentenced person who gives consent to transfer under this Treaty does so voluntarily and with knowledge of the consequences thereof. The procedure for giving such consent shall be governed by the law of the transferring Party.

2. The transferring Party shall permit an official designated by the receiving Party to verify, prior to the transfer, that the sentenced person's consent to the transfer has been given in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article.

ARTICLE 7

RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

The transferring Party shall retain exclusive jurisdiction in relation to the judgments of the courts of the transferring Party, as well as in relation to any procedure for the revision, modification, or cancellation of said judgments.

ARTICLE 8

CONTINUED ENFORCEMENT OF SENTENCE

1. Subject to paragraph 4 of this Article, the receiving Party shall be bound by the legal nature and duration of the sentence as determined by the transferring Party.
2. The receiving Party shall enforce the sentence as if the sentence had been imposed in the receiving Party.
3. The continued enforcement of the sentence after transfer shall be governed by the laws and procedures of the receiving Party, including those governing conditions of imprisonment, confinement or other deprivation of liberty, and those providing for the reduction of the term of imprisonment, confinement or other deprivation of liberty by parole, conditional release, remission or otherwise.
4. If the sentence is by its nature or duration incompatible with the law of the receiving Party, that Party may adapt the sentence in accordance with the sentence prescribed by its own law for a similar offence. When adapting the sentence, the appropriate authorities of the receiving Party shall be bound by the findings of fact, insofar as they appear from any opinion, conviction, judgment, or sentence imposed in the transferring Party. The adapted sentence shall be no more severe than that imposed by the transferring Party in terms of nature or duration, nor exceed the maximum penalty prescribed by the law of the receiving Party. When adapting the sentence, the competent authority of the receiving Party may, however, not convert a sanction involving deprivation of liberty to a pecuniary sanction.
5. The receiving Party shall modify or terminate enforcement of the sentence as soon as it is informed of any decision by the transferring Party to pardon the sentenced person, or of any other decision or measure of the transferring Party that results in cancellation or reduction of the sentence.
6. The receiving Party shall provide the following information to the transferring Party in relation to the continued enforcement of the sentence:
 - (a) when the sentence has been completed;
 - (b) if the sentenced person has escaped from custody before the sentence has been completed;
 - (c) if the sentenced person is unable to complete the sentence for any reason; or
 - (d) if the transferring Party requests a special report.
7. Once the receiving Party has notified the transferring Party in accordance with paragraph 6 of this Article that the sentence has been completed, the transferring Party shall not seek to enforce the sentence.

ARTICLE 9

TRANSIT OF SENTENCED PERSONS

If either Contracting Party transfers a sentenced person to or from any third State, the other Contracting Party shall co-operate in facilitating the transit through its territory of such a sentenced person. The Contracting Party intending to make such a transfer shall give advance notice to the other Contracting Party of such transit. Either Contracting Party may refuse to grant transit.

ARTICLE 10

LANGUAGE AND COSTS

1. Requests for transfer as well as the documents and declarations shall be furnished in the language of the transferring Party.
2. Unless otherwise agreed between the Contracting Parties, any costs incurred in relation to the transfer of the sentenced person or the continued enforcement of the sentence after transfer shall be borne by the receiving Party, except costs incurred by the transferring Party exclusively within the territory of the transferring Party. The receiving Party may, however, seek to recover all or part of the costs of transfer from the sentenced person or some other source.

ARTICLE 11

TERRITORIAL APPLICATION

This Treaty shall apply:

- (a) in relation to the United Kingdom, to Great Britain and Northern Ireland; and to any other territory for the international relations of which the United Kingdom is responsible and to which the Treaty shall have been extended by mutual agreement between the Contracting Parties by exchange of notes; and
- (b) in relation to Laos, to the territory of the Lao People's Democratic Republic.

ARTICLE 12

TEMPORAL APPLICATION

This Treaty shall be applicable to the transfer of sentenced persons who have been sentenced either before or after the entry into force of this Treaty.

ARTICLE 13

OTHER AGREEMENTS

This Treaty shall not affect the rights or obligations of the Contracting Parties under treaties or other international agreements to which they are a party.

ARTICLE 14

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Any dispute arising out of the interpretation, application, or implementation of this Treaty shall be resolved through negotiations between the Central Authorities. If the Central Authorities are unable to reach an agreement, the dispute shall be resolved by the Contracting Parties through diplomatic channels.

ARTICLE 15

1. Each of the Contracting Parties shall notify the other on completion of their respective internal constitutional and legal procedures required to allow this Treaty to enter into force.
2. This Treaty shall enter into force on the thirtieth (30th) day following the date of the latter notification referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.
3. Either Contracting Party may terminate this Treaty at any time by notice in writing to the other through diplomatic channels. Termination shall take effect six months after the date on which the notice is received.
4. Notwithstanding any termination, this Treaty shall continue to apply to the enforcement of sentences of sentenced persons who have been transferred under this Treaty before the date on which such termination takes effect.
